

Read Genesis 2 “Another Account of the Creation” and answer the following questions:

Use this worksheet, your notes and your readings to study for the quiz next time.

1. Footnote ‘f’ in verse 4 explains that LORD is an English translation of “YHWH” (or Yahweh). Look over p. 3 of the Catholic Youth Bible and indicate who the author of this chapter is.

2. In verse 7 we see an anthropomorphic representation of God. What do you think “anthropomorphic” means? (You may use the Harper’s Bible Dictionary in the back of the room to answer this question)

3. What are the two trees that God plants in the garden?

_____ and _____

4. In verse 20, Adam gives names to the animals. Who holds the power in the act of naming, the namer or the named?

In the subsequent questions you will contrast Genesis 1 and Genesis 2

5. (a) In which version of the creation story is God remote? (b) In which story is God more personal and intimate?

(a) (b)

6. Which version would you produce as a movie full of special effects (a) and which as a play on stage (b)?

(a) (b)

7. In which version is man created before the animals (a) and in which one is man created after (b)?

(a) (b)

8. Which version seems to be attempting to account for all of creation (a) and which one does not (b)?

(a) (b)

9. Which version focuses on God as the actor (a) and which one focuses on human origins (b)?

(a) (b)

10. Which one seems to be neutral in regards to women (a), which one seems to treat women as an after thought (b)?

(a) (b)